The Path

CAMTC

California Massage

Therapy Council

Sacramento, CA

CEO 2010-Present

Collaborate with CAMTC Board of Directors to develop and execute short and long term strategic priorities to Protect the Public and Elevate the Profession.

Manage revenues of more than $8.5 million a year.

Lead 40 staff members who provide oversight to 50,000+ massage professionals.

Hire and supervise CAMTC's team of Staff Attorneys and oversee outside law firms working on CAMTC legal issues.

Maintain working knowledge of factors impacting the credentialing of massage therapists and massage schools in California.

Serve as CAMTC's media spokesperson, provide interviews on massage related issues with multiple national news outlets such as CBS, CNN, USA Today, Los Angeles Times, and local press.

Established mutually beneficial partnerships with 58 District Attorneys, more than 300 Police Chiefs, 58 Sheriffs and numerous human trafficking organizations.

Initiated the establishment of CAMTC's Educational Standards Division, which approves and provides oversight to 70+ massage therapy programs in California.

Chair, Founding Board of Directors 2009-2010

In October 2008, collaborated with other CAMTC Board Members to establish the foundational framework for what later became CAMTC, a 501 (c) 3 public benefit nonprofit organization as authorized by statute.

Unanimously elected to serve as CAMTC's first Board Chair.

Brought together opposing factions of the Board by introducing innovative solutions that built consensus on highly divisive issues.

Established a constructive relationship with the Legislature and with a diverse group of stakeholders.
